Case No. 3:21-cv-00512-RCJ-CSD

JOINT STIPULATION AMENDING SCHEDULING ORDER

1 Plaintiffs Fallon Paiute-Shoshone Tribe (“FPST”) and the Center for Biological Diversity
2 (“CBD”), Federal Defendants U.S. Department of the Interior, et al. (“Federal Defendants”), and 3 Defendant Ormat Nevada, Inc. (“Ormat”) (together, the “Parties”) have conferred and hereby 4 jointly submit the following stipulation and second amendment to the scheduling order, ECF 67, 5 for the Court’s consideration.

6 Due to unforeseen scheduling conflicts affecting the availability of Defendants’ attorneys
7 and unanticipated absences of federal agency staff, the Parties have agreed to extend the briefing
8 schedule as set out below. Ormat also commits as part of this stipulation that it will temporarily
9 pause construction of the Phase I power plant either until the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service
10 issues a Biological Opinion for the Project thereby concluding the Section 7 consultation 11 process, or until February 28, 2023, whichever is sooner.

- 12 1. Federal Defendants and Ormat shall each file a brief in support of their cross-13 motions for summary judgment and responding to Plaintiffs’ motion for 14 summary judgment by October 28, 2022. Federal Defendants’ brief and Ormat’s 15 brief shall each be limited to 45 pages. Federal Defendants and/or Ormat may 16 also file a motion to strike concerning the admission of extra-record evidence 17 concurrently with their combined responses/motions for summary judgment. If 18 filed, the motion(s) to strike shall be limited to 15 pages.
- 19 2. Plaintiffs shall file a combined reply in support of their summary judgment 20 motion and in response to Federal Defendants’ and Ormat’s cross-motions for 21 summary judgment, which will be due on December 9, 2022. Plaintiffs’ brief
22 shall be limited to 60 pages. If a motion to strike is filed, Plaintiffs may respond 23 concurrently with their reply/response. Plaintiffs’ response opposing the 24 motion(s) to strike shall be limited to 15 pages.
- 25 3. Federal Defendants’ and Ormat’s replies in support of their cross-motions for 26 summary judgment will each be due on January 20, 2023, and each will be 27 limited to 45 pages. If a motion to strike is filed, Federal Defendants and/or 28 Ormat may reply concurrently with their reply in support of their cross-motions

1 for summary judgment. Replies in support of a motion to strike shall be limited 2 to 10 pages.

- 3 4. Plaintiffs do not waive any claims under the ESA or Religious Freedom
4 Restoration Act (“RFRA”) which may not be resolved on summary judgment 5 due to unresolved issues of material fact. Plaintiffs take the position that because 6 the ESA and RFRA each provide their own cause of action, claims under these 7 statutes are not limited in scope by the APA and thus may not be limited to the 8 administrative record compiled by the agency. Federal Defendants take the 9 position that ESA Claims against them are record-review claims governed by 10 both the scope and standard of the APA that do not present any unresolved
11 issues of material fact. Further, Federal Defendants and Ormat take the position 12 that summary judgment and the briefing schedule set forth above can resolve all 13 claims in Plaintiffs’ First Amended Complaint.¹

14 In light of the Parties’ commitment to the briefing schedule outlined herein, and Ormat’s 15 intention to suspend construction until either completion of the Section 7 consultation process or 16 until February 28, 2023, the Parties respectfully request expedited review by the Court, with a 17 decision on the merits before the end of February 2023.

18
20
21
22
23
24
25
26 ¹ Federal Defendants also take the position that because Plaintiffs’ APA claims challenge a final 27 agency action, those claims in this case should be decided based on the Administrative Record 28 compiled by Federal Defendants. However, should the Court find that the introduction of extra-record evidence is appropriate, the Parties do not waive their right to seek discovery regarding the RFRA and ESA claims.

1 RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED this 7th day of October, 2022.
